NATIONAL GALLERY OF ART
WASHINGTON, D. C.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The National Gallery of Art announces that Mr. David Keppel, of New York, has been appointed Associate Curator of Prints of the National Gallery.

Mr. Keppel was associated for a number of years with his father, the late Frederick Keppel, who is so well remembered by collectors of etchings and engravings in this country.

Mr. David Keppel is an Honorary Fellow for Life of the Metropolitan Museum of Art. He has lectured in New York, Cleveland, Rochester and at Wesleyan University. During his career of forty years of constant and intensive selection in the field of etchings and engravings, Mr. Keppel has assisted in the formation of many notable collections.
