FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AZTEC EXHIBITION EXTENDED
THROUGH APRIL 1, 1984

WASHINGTON, D.C. January 9, 1984. The National Gallery of Art announced today that the exhibition Art of Aztec Mexico: Treasures of Tenochtitlan, scheduled to close on January 8, 1984, has been extended through April 1, 1984.

Continued popular and scholarly interest in the exhibition has prompted the extension. This is the first U. S. exhibition devoted exclusively to Aztec art.

Art of Aztec Mexico is installed on the Upper Level of the National Gallery's East Building. Recorded tours, in both English and Spanish, are available at the entrance for a nominal fee.

A joint project of the National Gallery and Dumbarton Oaks, Washington, D.C., the exhibition has been generously supported by a contribution from the GTE Corporation. This exhibition is also supported by an indemnity from the Federal Council on the Arts and the Humanities.
