ADVANCE PASSES AVAILABLE STARTING AUGUST 30, 1998

FOR "VAN GOGH'S VAN GOGHS" AND "EDO: ART IN JAPAN 1615-1868"

AT NATIONAL GALLERY OF ART, WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- Starting Sunday, August 30, 1998, advance passes for Van Gogh's Van Goghs: Masterpieces from the Van Gogh Museum, Amsterdam and Edo: Art in Japan 1615-1868 will be available at the East Building of the National Gallery of Art and through TicketMaster.

"We encourage everyone who plans to see these important exhibitions to get passes ahead of time to make their experience at the National Gallery more enjoyable," said Earl A. Powell III, director, National Gallery of Art.

Daily passes will be required for Van Gogh's Van Goghs (October 4, 1998 - January 3, 1999). An unprecedented loan of 70 paintings by Vincent van Gogh (1853-1890) from the Van Gogh Museum, Amsterdam, will comprise the largest survey of the artist's career to be seen outside The Netherlands in more than a quarter of a century.

For Edo: Art in Japan 1615-1868 (November 15, 1998 - February 15, 1999), passes will be required on weekends, federal holidays, and busy days during the holiday season (Saturdays and Sundays, as well as November 26 and 27; December 28, 29, 30, and 31,
