There will be also a variety of CDs of classic Islamic music, a film in VHS and DVD formats, and a large selection of books. A wide selection of children's books will be available including David Macaulay's Mosque, for which a book signing is scheduled on November 6, 2004, during the Gallery's Family Weekend.

Catalogue

The 144-page companion book to the exhibition, Palace and Mosque: Islamic Art from the Victoria and Albert Museum, published by V&A Publications, London, is lavishly illustrated with 210 images in full color. It is co-authored by Tim Stanley, senior curator, Middle East, Victoria and Albert Museum, with Mariam Rosser-Owen and Stephen Veroit. It will be available for $50 in hardcover and $35 in softcover in the Gallery Shops, by calling 1-(800) 697-9350 or (202) 842-6002; or on the Gallery's Web site at www.nga.gov/shop/shop.htm (<http://www.nga.gov/shop/shop.htm>).

Exhibition

Palace and Mosque: Islamic Art from the Victoria and Albert Museum features more than 100 works from one of the most renowned Islamic art collections in the world. Selected from a superb collection of more than 10,000 objects, the exhibition will convey the richness of Islamic art of the Middle East on a scale and at a level of quality hard to find outside the region. The exhibition will travel to the Kimbell Art Museum, Fort Worth, Texas (April 3-September 4, 2005); the Setagaya Art Museum, Tokyo, Japan (October 22-December 11, 2005); and the Millennium Galleries, Sheffield, England (January 14-April 16, 2006).

This exhibition was organized by the Victoria and Albert Museum, London, in association with the National Gallery of Art, Washington.

The exhibition at the National Gallery of Art is generously sponsored by H.R.H. Prince Bandar bin Sultan, Ambassador of Saudi Arabia to the United States.

The international tour of this exhibition has been made possible by the generosity of Mohammed Jameel, the benefactor of the V&A's Jameel Gallery of Islamic Art, which is dedicated to the memory of Mr. Abdul Latif Jameel, the late founder of the Abdul Latif Jameel Group, and his wife Nafisa.

The exhibition is supported by an indemnity from the Federal Council on the Arts and the Humanities.
